

Four Plymouth bikers represent Devon in off-road race

By Plymouth Herald | Posted: February 21, 2015

 Comments \(0\)

FOUR Plymouth motorbike riders represented Devon in an off-road race – finishing one after the other.

Team Devon took on the Cypriote Troodos Mountains in the extreme Enduro race.

Keith MacGregor, Justin Thornton, Dave Thompson and Stan Gibbs finished in fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth place at the ride in Cyprus.

The winner was Eraklis Charalambous on a Beta two stroke bike.

Keith said: "The course, designed by Richard Reast of Exclaim Enduro Tours, covered every off road riders dream from fast fire roads on the edge of the mountains to extreme up and down hills, trials and rocky water stream sections."

The next race is on Saturday, April 25 and anyone interested in entering or following the event can contact Exclaim Enduro via Facebook or online.

 Cap - Washer Reservoir - Genuine... £5.25 Shop Now	 Cover Plate - Tow Loop - Genuine Lan... £15.17 Shop Now
 Brake Shoe Axle Set - Standard £11.96 Shop Now	 Headlamp Finisher - Black Primer LH - Af... £15.21 Shop Now

MORE NEWS HEADLINES

Argyle chairman James Brent praises the 'passion and pride' of...

£100k bid to build Plymouth a new roller skating rink

Budget meeting stopped for legal advice after allegation made...

Black Alert at Derriford Hospital as A&E waiting hits...

Sick councillors called in for vote to push through Plymouth City...